

National Conference 2023

Reconnecting the lymphoma community

Saturday 13 May 2023

- 9.30am Registration please sign in to collect your name badge and conference brochure.
Tea and coffee will be provided.
- 10am Welcome to the day Mark Harrison, Chair of Trustees, Lymphoma Action and Dallas Pounds, Director of Services.
- 10.25am Setting the scene - an overview of lymphoma Dr Rob Lown, Consultant Haematologist
University Hospital Southampton.
- 11am Meet the experts by experience run by our volunteers with a lived experience of lymphoma, who will share their own experiences.
- 11.40am Morning refreshment break visit our exhibition stands and meet others.
Tea and coffee will be provided.
- 12pm Mental health and lymphoma Dr Anna Lagerdahl, Consultant Clinical Psychologist
Great Western Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust.
- 12.40pm Meet the Lymphoma Action teams choose the services, policy or volunteering team.
- 1.15pm Lunch break - visit our exhibition stands and find out how we can support you, and how you can get involved with our activities.
Lunch will be provided.
Volunteer networking lunch: current volunteers are invited to get together over lunch.
- 2.15pm Physical wellbeing and lymphoma Anya Aspinall, Lymphoma Advanced Nurse Practitioner, Oxford University Hospitals.
- 2.45pm Scans and lymphoma Dr Manil Subesinghe, Consultant Radiologist
Kings College London.
- 3.15pm Afternoon refreshment break visit our exhibition stands and meet others.
Tea and coffee will be provided.
- 3.30pm New and future treatments Professor Andy Davies, Consultant Haematologist
University Hospital Southampton.
- 4pm Meet the medical experts a chance to ask your questions with Anya Aspinall, Dr Manil Subesinghe and Professor Andy Davies.
- 4.30pm Close of conference

Please note: this is a draft programme and may change.