

Education and Training 2023

Lymphoma
action

We delivered a wide range of information and support services for people affected by lymphoma, including our Lymphoma Voices podcast series, Live your Life workshops, live webinars, videos and educational events for healthcare professionals. Below is a summary of their impact and reach in 2023.

Healthcare professional education and training

23

Clinical Nurse Specialists attended our insight event

410

registrations for Lymphoma Management course

After attending our Lymphoma Management course:

97%

said it will help ensure their patients are more informed and understand their condition

93%

said their attendance will improve their clinical practice

“A great summary of current treatment approaches from experts in the field.

Lymphoma Management course attendee

10

new information videos

4,900

views of videos produced in 2023

6

live webinars attended by

297 people

6

new podcasts

6,179

'listens' across whole podcast series

“Definitely recommend- a great all-round workshop full of valuable information.
Live your Life workshop attendee

23 Live
Your Life
workshops

Live your Life Programme

44
people registered
on Live your Life
mini course

205
people attended
Live your Life
workshops

After attending a Live your Life virtual workshop:

100%

rated the course as good or very good

94%

said it helped them to know what they can do to live well during and after lymphoma
treatment

100%

thought it was well or very well presented by the facilitators

“The guest speakers were well chosen and good at explaining experiences. The host and cancer practitioners were excellent showing their experience and understanding.
Webinar attendee