

Information and Publications 2023

Our accredited information and publications provide in-depth, expert information for people affected by lymphoma to help them better understand their diagnosis, treatment and life beyond their condition. Below is a summary of our information and publications impact and reach in 2023.

Top five books ordered in print

Top five downloaded books

“I just wanted to say that I found the new book very helpful, one of the best I’ve seen and useful for positioning where I’m at. Support like this is appreciated.

Feedback on Lymphoma Action Low-grade non-Hodgkin lymphoma book

79,337
Lymphoma Matters magazines sent

26,883
information books sent

24 personal stories published on the website

5
books reviewed and printed

“ We both read your magazine from cover to cover; it's so good – well written, informative and helps to make everything less scary.

Feedback about Lymphoma Matters magazine

Our website

1.8 million

Health information page views

29 Medical information web pages reviewed and updated

130

Blog posts published

Top five

viewed health information
web pages:

Symptoms of lymphoma

Lymphoma and the end of life

Staging of lymphoma

Skin lymphoma

What is lymphoma?

Lymphoma TrialsLink

62

Total number of open trials

35

New trials added

22,000

TrialsLink
page views

“ Excellent information, lots of details, good explanation in a very simple way to help patients.

Feedback on Active monitoring page on the website